This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFATORY NOTE.

The Hon. WILLIAM H. TUTHILL died at Tipton, Iowa, on the 8th day of September, 1880. He was born in the City of New York, on the 5th of December, 1808.

After reading law for the usual period of time, he was admitted to the bar, and practiced in his profession, in part, in his native city until 1840, when he removed to the West. Upon his arrival in Tipton, he first embarked in mercantile business for a while; but his taste and inclinations led in another direction—this direction was his chosen pursuit—the Law, and this he continued to practice in the main till near his death. He always felt a pride in his profession, and a just contempt for every thing that tended to degrade it. It is said of him, that such was the high appreciation in which he was held as one learned in the law, that he was retained in all the important cases which were tried while he was in active practice.

In 1855 he was elected Judge of the District Court of the 8th Judicial District of Iowa, and held this office for two terms.

While always actively engaged in business, he found some time to give to general literature. He published a series of articles in the newspapers under the NOM DE PLUME of "Anti-Quary," consisting chiefly of incidents and anecdotes relative to early settlers of Cedar County, Iowa. He was Secretary of the Old Settlers' Association from its organization. He was a frequent contributor to "Harpers' Magazine," and of the "Annals" of Iowa. He was also the author of the history of "A Family Meeting of the Descendants of John Tuthill, one of the original Settlers of the Town of Southold, L. I., held at New Suffolk, L. I., August 28th, 1867." Also, the author of a "Review of the Dred Scott Decision."

Having a fondness and taste for literature, and an ample fortune, it is not surprising that he selected a fine Library.

His collection was regarded as the largest and best in the State of Iowa. It comprises about five thousand volumes, covering nearly every department of Literature, Science, and Art, as will be seen upon examination of this Catalogue.

The books generally are in good condition, many being in the original binding, and in paper covers uncut. While in the hurry of Catalogueing, any defects that were noticed are so stated.

Orders to purchase may be sent to the Auctioneers, or to
